Furthermore, non-resident shareholders may benefit from a different, more favorable, tax rate in compliance with the provisions of the Tax Code and Double Taxation Conventions concluded between Romania and the state of residence of that shareholder, based on the valid certificate of tax residence submitted by the non-resident shareholder.

The non-resident shareholders, which have accounts opened with the Participants (Broker / Custodian Bank), and those that do not have accounts opened with the Participants (those that choose the methods provided under sections 2 and 3) which want the application of the more favorable provisions of the Agreement for avoiding double taxation concluded between Romania and their country of residence must send or submit, either by the Participant, if they have accounts opened with the Participant, or directly, if they have accounts opened with the Participant, at the headquarters of SN Nuclearelectrica S.A., at No. 65, Polona Street, district 1, Bucharest, zip code 010494, in attention of the Communication and Investor Relations Department, until 12.06.2021 inclusively, the fiscal residence certificate for the year in which the Otherwise, the standard rate in force provided by the Fiscal Code of Romania will be applied.

In the event of submission of the certificate of tax residence, together with a request for payment through bank transfer of the net dividends distributed by SN Nuclearelectrica S.A., after the date of 12.06.2021, but not later than 14.12.2021, SNN shall withhold on the date of payment (25.06.2021) the dividend tax in force provided by the Romanian Tax Code, with any tax difference due to the shareholder being paid subsequently to the transmission and verification of the documentation, if following the receipt and the verification thereof it results that it would be entitled to a lower tax rate than the standard one laid down in the Romanian Tax Code.
