In case of indictment for the offenses referred to under Art. 6 par. 2 of Law 31/1990, the Director is bound to immediately notify the Company and the Contract shall cease as of when the Company has received such notification.

6.7 The Director is bound to comply with the privileged information regime, as regulated by Law No. 24/2017 and the regulations of the Financial Supervisory Authority.

6.8 The Director is bound to hold and maintain an excellent professional reputation.

6.9 The Director is further bound:

- a) to exercise their mandate with the loyalty, prudence and diligence of a good manager, in the exclusive interest of the Company, and not to undertake any special obligations towards a shareholder or another of the Company related to the activity of the Company; the Director does not breach the aforementioned obligation if, upon making a business decision, they are reasonably entitled to consider (i) that they act in the best of interest the Company, and (ii) that they have made the decision based on appropriate information.
- b) to take all the necessary measures for protecting the Company's assets, along with the other members of the Board of Directors;
- c) to keep the confidentiality of the Company's business information and secrets, that they had access to by means of the documents presented to the Board of Directors, except where such use is required by law or necessary in relation to public authorities and/or the participation of the Director in any dispute concerning the Company's activity;
- d) not to conclude legal acts with the Company, except under the conditions established by law.

6.10 The Director, along with the other members of the Board of Directors, convenes the General Meeting of Shareholders for the approval of any transaction if it has, individually or in a series of concluded transactions, a value higher than 10% of the Company's net asset value or 10% of the turnover of the public undertaking, pursuant to the latest audited financial statements, with the directors or the managers, with the employees, with the shareholders holding the control over the company or with a company thereby controlled. The obligation to convene also subsists in the case of the transactions concluded with the spouse, relatives or kin up to and including the fourth degree, of the afore-mentioned persons.

6.11 The Director, along with other directors, is bound to inform the shareholders, within the first General Meeting of Shareholders following the conclusion of the legal deed, about any transaction with the directors or executive directors, Chief Executive Officer, managers or, as applicable, with the employees, shareholders controlling the Company or with a company thereby controlled, by providing the shareholders with documents reflecting the significant essential data and information related to the transactions made; the obligation also applies to the transactions concluded with the spouse, relatives or kin up to and including the fourth degree.

6.12 The Director, along with other directors, is bound to inform the shareholders, within the first General Meeting of Shareholders following the conclusion of the legal deed, about any transactions concluded by the Company with another company meeting the conditions required to be considered a public undertaking) or a public authority, if the transaction has the value specified by law.

6.13 The Director, along with the other directors, is bound to submit, biannually and annually, to the General Meeting of Shareholders, in a special chapter, the legal documents concluded under the conditions set forth under 6.11 - 6.12, mentioning the following elements: the parties having concluded the legal deed, the date of conclusion, and nature of the deed, description of the scope thereof, the total value of the legal deed, mutual claims, securities established, terms and payment methods, and any other essential and significant information related to such legal deed, as well as any information necessary to determine the effects of such legal deed on the financial status of the Company.

Art. 7 Confidentiality. Non-Competition Clause

7.1 The Director is bound not to use for their own benefit and not to disclose to any unauthorized person any information of a confidential or secret nature regarding the activity of the Company. In this regard, the Director undertakes to comply with the confidentiality rules set out in Annex 1 to this Contract of Mandate.

7.2 The Director shall not use the Confidential Information – according to the definition of this concept set out in Annex 1 - directly or indirectly, for their personal benefit or for the benefit of third parties, except where such use is required by law, the exercise of the duties specific to the position or the Director's participation in a trial.

7.3 The Director shall fully comply with the non-competition obligations set out in Annex 2 to this Contract of Mandate.

Art. 8 Rights and Obligations of the Company

8.1 The Company is entitled to request the Director to exercise their mandate in the exclusive interest of the Company, and to account for the manner of exercise thereof.

8.2 The Company is entitled, through its representatives in the General Meeting of Shareholders, to assess the activity of the members of the Company's Board of Directors, on a half-yearly and yearly basis, in order to ensure that the management plan is implemented and, therefore, that the principles of efficiency and profitability are complied with.

8.3 The Company is entitled to request to the Directors information on the exercise of the mandate and the assessment of the activity.

8.4 The Company is bound to pay the Director's remuneration in compliance with the provisions of this Contract.

8.5 The Company is bound to provide the conditions for the Director to perform their activity with full liberty in the exercise of their mandate.

8.6 The Company undertakes to pay all the pecuniary entitlements due to the Director, stipulated in this Contract, including to withhold and timely pay the income tax and all other mandatory tax or other contributions, incumbent upon the Director, on behalf and on account thereof.

8.7 The Company undertakes to provide the Director with full freedom for the purpose of accomplishing the mandate/duties/obligations thereof, in full compliance with the limits laid down under the Articles of Incorporation/Articles of Association, this Contract, and the applicable legal framework.

8.8 The Company undertakes to provide the Director with training courses including for the verifications to be carried out by CNCAN under NSN - 23 - Nuclear security norms on training, qualifying and authorizing the personnel of the organizations that operate nuclear installations approved by the Nuclear Activity Inspection National Board by Order No. 108 published in the Official Gazette, Part I, No. 438 of 13 June 2017.

Art. 9 Method of Assessment for the Director

9.1 The Director shall implement the internal self-assessment of the Board of Directors that the former is part of, the committees that the former is part of, the purpose being that of enabling the board to identify the strengths and the potential for collective and individual development, in order to fulfill the functions of the board, as well as the support conditions, but also the processes and skills required for these functions. In this regard, the Director, along with the other members of the Board of Directors shall elaborate and approve a procedure for the self-assessment of the activity of the members of the Board of Directors, self-assessment that shall take place at least once a year.

9.2 The Director shall provide the Company with all the information necessary to assess the collective performance of the Board as a whole, in relation to the board profile matrix created by the tutelary public authority. The results of this assessment provide information on the variable component of the remuneration under the Contract of Mandate, the key performance indicators used, as well as the development activities that shall inform the future structures of the board and the criteria used for this purpose.

Art. 10 Liability of the Parties

10.1 The non-fulfillment and/or inappropriate fulfillment of the obligations undertaken by either of the signatory parties of this Contract entails the liability of the defaulting party.

10.2 The party having caused the termination of this Contract due to culpable non-fulfillment and/or culpable inappropriate fulfillment of the obligations undertaken therein shall be liable towards the other party by the coverage of all the damages having been generated by the termination of the Contract.

10.3 The Director, along with the other members of the Board of Directors, is liable for the culpable non-fulfillment: (i) of the obligation to comply with the management plan, in order to achieve the performance objectives and criteria, (ii) of the provisions of this Contract of Mandate, (iii) of the provisions of the resolutions adopted by the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders, (iv) of the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation which are not contrary to the law, and (v) of the obligations deriving from legal provisions applicable to the Director.

10.4 The Director does not breach the duty of prudence and due diligence and shall not be liable when, upon making a business decision, they are reasonably entitled to consider that they act in the best interest of the Company and based on appropriate information, except for the causes which exempt them from liability that are set out in this contract or in the applicable law.

10.5 The Director is jointly and severally liable with the other Directors, unless they asked for their separate position/opinion to be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors, and they notified this in writing to the internal auditors and the external financial auditor.

Art. 11 Force Majeure

11.1 The Parties are exonerated from liability in case of force majeure, as such is defined in this Contract of Mandate.

11.2 In the event of force majeure, the Parties shall jointly endeavor to reduce the possible damages that would result from the occurrence of such a cause.

11.3 The Parties also undertake to notify each other in writing, within maximum 5 (five) days of the occurrence of any force majeure cause, and, in general, to inform each other, and in due time, of any impediments likely to lead to difficulties in the fulfillment of the scope of this Contract of Mandate.

Art. 12 Amendment of the Contract of Mandate

12.1 This Contract of Mandate may only be amended by written agreement of the signatory parties, expressed in an addendum.

12.2 This Contract of Mandate shall be adjusted according to the legal regulations following the conclusion thereof and applicable thereto.

12.3 This Contract, thereby understanding all and any of the Annexes thereof and addenda thereto, may be amended/supplemented in any of the clauses thereof, as long as the imperative legal provisions in force, the public order and good morals are not prejudiced.

Art. 13 Termination of the Contract of Mandate

13.1 This Contract of Mandate shall be terminated in the following situations:

- a) expiry of the term for which it was concluded;
- b) in the case referred to in Art. 30 par. 5 of OUG No. 109/2011;
- c) the revocation of the Director by the Company in any of the following cases:
 - (i) non-fulfillment or inappropriate fulfillment of the obligations under the Contract;
 - (ii) non-fulfillment of the financial and non-financial performance indicators they have committed to under the contract from reasons attributable to the Director;
 - (iii) breach of the integrity and ethics criteria stipulated in the Contract of Mandate, including by avoiding or failing to report a conflict of interests and/or failing to observe the Code of Ethics of the Company;
- d) revocation of the mandate by the Company, as of the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders, whereby the revocation was decided, with a prior written notice sent 30 days before the date on which the termination of the mandate is requested, without providing any reason for the termination of the Contract, and without the intervention of the court of law; in this case, the Company shall solely indemnify the Director pursuant to Art. 13.3 below.
- e) the Director's waiver of the mandate entrusted thereto, in full observance of the conditions on prior notice laid down under this Contract;
- f) the agreement of the Parties concluded in written form;
- g) by operation of law, with the occurrence of a case of termination laid down by law, including in the event of occurrence of a case of incompatibility or an interdiction laid down by law, ascertained pursuant to the law;
- h) by operation of law, in case of termination of the legal status of the Company or the death of the Director or the placement of the Director under a legal ban;
- i) the intervention of legal impediments, as defined under this Contract of Mandate.
- j) By revocation, if the Director fails to pass, within 12 months of the starting date of the mandate, the CNCAN verifications stipulated by the NSN-23 guidelines. The Contract shall be terminated when CNCAN/the Director notifies SNN about the fact that the Director has not passed the CNCAN verifications stipulated by NSN - 23 and, in this case, SNN shall not owe the Director any damages.

13.2 On the date of termination of this Contract, the Director shall immediately return to the Company all the assets/fixed assets entrusted for the use thereof in virtue of this Contract.

13.3 If the Director is revoked according to the provisions of Art. 13.1 let. d), he/she is entitled to receive from the Company liquidated damages for the unfulfilled period of the Contract of Mandate.

If the revocation occurs within the first 3 (three) years of mandate, the Director is entitled to receive exclusively liquidated damages representing the fixed monthly allowances for the remaining period unfulfilled from the Contract of Mandate, but not more than 24 fixed monthly allowances.

If the revocation occurs within the last year of the mandate, the Director is entitled to receive exclusively liquidated damages representing the fixed monthly allowances for the remaining period unfulfilled from the Contract of Mandate, but not more than 6 fixed monthly allowances.

The payment of liquidated damages is made within 30 business days of the date of termination of this Contract of Mandate.

The damage compensations payable to the director according to the aforementioned provisions are his/her only compensation if he/she is unfairly dismissed.

Art. 14 Disputes

14.1 Any dispute arisen between the Parties related to the conclusion, performance, amendment, termination or interpretation of the clauses of this Contract of Mandate, which cannot be amicably settled, shall be submitted to the competent Romanian courts of law at the Company's headquarters.

Art. 15 Duty of Confidentiality between the Parties

15.1 The Parties undertake to keep the confidentiality, according to the applicable legal and statutory provisions, on all the data, information and documents received from the other party in the performance of this Contract of Mandate.

15.2 The Parties may disclose information or documents related to the performance of this Contract of Mandate only to the people involved in the performance thereof who, in their turn, shall be bound not to use them for any purpose other than that related to the performance of the Contract, obligation communicated thereto by the signatory party of this Contract of Mandate.

15.3 The disclosure of information in one of the following cases is not considered a duty of confidentiality:

- (i) if the information was known to the party before being obtained from the other party and they can prove this;
- (ii) if the disclosure of the information was made after receiving the written consent of the other party;
- (iv) if the information was notorious on the date of the disclosure thereof;
- (v) if the party disclosed such information in order to comply with legal provisions, requirements of a regulator or upon the request of a competent public authority, criminal investigation authority, prosecutor's office or a court of law, or for the purpose of exercising the duties specific to the position of Director.

Art. 16 Final Provisions

16.1 Annexes 1-2 are an integral part of this Contract.

16.2 This Contract of Mandate is governed by and construed in compliance with the provisions of the Romanian law. For any aspects not expressly mentioned in the contents thereof, this Contract of Mandate is supplemented by the provisions of the Romanian Civil Code. Furthermore, this Contract of Mandate is supplemented by the provisions of Law No. 31/1990 and O.U.G No. 109/2011. This Contract of Mandate is not an employment contract and is not governed by the labor law.

16.3 This Contract of Mandate represents the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes any prior, written or verbal, agreement reached between the Parties related to the scope of this Contract.

16.4 If any clauses of this Contract of Mandate become legally ineffective, the validity of the other provisions of this Contract shall not be impaired thereby. In such situations, the Parties agree to renegotiate in good faith any clause that has become legally ineffective, adding the clause thus renegotiated to the provisions of this Contract of Mandate.

16.5 All the amendments that the Parties address to each other under this Contract of Mandate are made in writing and sent by fax, e-mail, registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt or express courier to the addresses indicated in Art. 1 of this Contract. Depending on the actual situation, the Parties shall opt, in good faith and reasonably, for the most appropriate means of notification from the ones outlined in the first sentence of this article, so that the notification achieves its purpose and contributes to the fulfillment of the contractual obligations incumbent upon the Parties.

16.6 If, at any time over the term of this Contract of Mandate, one of the Parties does not expressly insist on the enforcement of a specific provision of the Contract, it does not mean that such party has waived such provisions or has waived the right to enforce such provisions.

In witness thereof, we concluded this day of [●], at the registered office of the Company, in 2 (two) original counterparts, this Contract of Mandate, with the Parties also stating that they have each received one counterpart, upon the execution of this Contract.

CONFIDENTIALITY RULES

1. Definition

The term "Confidential Information" means and includes any information regarding the Company's business that is not public, according to (i) the law, (ii) the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, (iii) the resolutions of the Board of Directors and (iv) the internal regulations of the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the confidential information includes:

- a) the contractual terms and any information related to the Company's business partners, customers, agents, employees, entrepreneurs, investors or suppliers, as well as the conditions under which the Company performs economic activities with each of these persons;
- b) computer programs (including source code and object code) or the software developed, modified or used by the Company;
- c) information of any kind compiled by the Company, including, without limitation, information related to the products and services, advertising and marketing, as well as to existing or potential customers, suppliers and/or business partners;
- d) algorithms, procedures or techniques, or essential ideas and principles underlying such algorithms, procedures or techniques developed by or those used by the Company or otherwise known to the Company (except for any algorithm, procedure or technique belonging to public domain), regardless of whether or not these algorithms, procedures, techniques are part of a computer program, including, without limitation, techniques for:
 - the identification of potential customers;
 - the effective communication with existing or potential customers;
 - the reduction of the operating costs or the increase of the efficiency of the system.
- e) the fact that the Company uses, used or assessed as a possibility to use any particular data base, data sources, algorithms, procedures or techniques or ideas developed or provided by a person other than the Company (including any public algorithm, procedure or technique), regardless of whether such algorithms, procedures or techniques are part of a computer program or not;
- f) the marketing establishment strategies developed, investigated, acquired (from a third person or otherwise), assessed, modified, tested or used by the Company, or any information related to or that may reasonably lead to the development of such a strategy;
- g) information regarding the Company's future plans, including, without limitation, plans to expand to geographical areas, market segments or services, any information that could be ordinarily included in the Company's financial statements including, without limitation, the Company's amount of the assets, liabilities, net value, revenues, expenses or net income, except for that information the disclosure whereof is authorized according to the internal regulations of the Company;
- h) information to be disclosed solely under the conditions set out under point 5;
- i) any other information obtained by the Director during the exercise of their mandate, that they might reasonably consider to reflect vulnerabilities of the Company, and which would assist a competitor or a potential competitor of the Company to successfully compete against the Company;
- j) any information received by the Company from third parties that, in turn, have a duty of confidentiality about the existence whereof they inform the Company;
- k) any information derived from all of the foregoing, and
- l) any copies of all the aforementioned pieces of information, unless such copies are requested by a court of law or other public authority, under the conditions laid down by law.

2. Use and Disclosure of Confidential Information

The Director acknowledges that they have acquired and/or shall acquire Confidential Information during or in connection with the exercise of their mandate within the Company, and that the use of such Confidential Information by themselves or by other people for the purpose of competing with the Company would severely jeopardize the Company's capacity to continue its economic activity.

Therefore, the Director accepts that, directly and indirectly, at any time, throughout the term of the Contract of Mandate, concluded with the Company or at any time after its termination, and regardless of when and for what reason such contract might cease, they shall not use or cause the use of any Confidential Information in connection with any activities or business except the Company's activities, and shall not disclose or cause the disclosure of any Confidential Information to any individual, company, association, group or any other entity, unless such disclosure has been specifically authorized in writing by the Company, or unless it is required by any applicable law or is ordered by a competent court of law or arbitral court, or by any public authority which is empowered by law to receive such information.

Additionally, the Director undertakes to promptly notify the Company about any act of a law or arbitral court or of any other public authority of the kind specified in the previous paragraph, so that the Company may adopt, in accordance with the law, protective measures or another appropriate solution, and must continue to provide any assistance that the Company might reasonably request as a guarantee for such measures or solutions.

If the protection measures referred to under the previous paragraph are not sufficient, the Director shall provide only that part of the Confidential Information that is legally required by the public authority in question, and shall use reasonable and legally substantiated efforts to obtain the confidential treatment of any Confidential Information thus disclosed.

3. Use and Disclosure of Information on Third Parties

The Director understands that the Company sometimes receives information from third parties, that the Company must treat with confidentiality and use only for limited purposes ("Information on Third Parties").

The Director accepts that, directly or indirectly, at any time over the term of the Contract of Mandate concluded with the Company, or at any time after the termination thereof, and no matter when and the reason why this Contract terminates, they shall not use or cause the use of any Information on third parties, except where this is allowed under a written agreement between the Company, and such third person, unless required by any applicable law or by judgment of a court of law or arbitration court or by any other authority that is empowered under the law to receive such information.

In addition, the Director undertakes to promptly notify the Company about any act of a law or arbitral court or of any other public authority of the kind specified in the previous paragraph, so that the Company may adopt, in accordance with the law, protective measures or another appropriate solution. If the protection measures are not sufficient, the Director shall only provide that part of the Information on third parties that is required under the law.

4. Protection of Trade Secrets

No provision in this Contract of Mandate shall bind the Company, nor shall it affect in any way the rights thereof to protect its trade secrets, by any means stipulated by law.

5. Disclosure of Information by the Company

During the performance of the Contract of Mandate and on the date of termination of this Contract of Mandate, the Director shall disclose and shall promptly deliver to the Company, to the extent such disclosure would reasonably be considered to be in the best interest of the Company, in writing or in any form and manner, as reasonably required by the Company, the following information ("Information to be disclosed"):

- (i) all and any algorithms, procedures or techniques related to the economic activities of the Company or the activity of the Director within the Company, the essential ideas and principles underlying such original, adjusted, discovered, developed, acquired conceived algorithms, procedures or techniques, (from a third person or otherwise), assessed, tested or applied by the Director during the activity thereof within the Company, regardless of whether such algorithms, procedures or techniques have been incorporated into a computer program;
- (ii) all and any marketing strategies, ideas and core principles underlying these strategies, and any pieces of information that could reasonably lead to the development of such original, adjusted, discovered, developed, acquired conceived strategies (from a third person or otherwise), assessed, tested or applied by the Director during the activity thereof within the Company;

- (iii) information on all and any products and services, the essential ideas and principles underlying these products and services, conceived, original, adjusted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third person or otherwise), assessed, tested or applied by the Director during the activity thereof within the Company, and
- (iv) any other ideas or pieces of information conceived, original, adjusted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third person or otherwise) assessed, tested or applied by the Director during the activity thereof within the Company, if these ideas or information could be reasonably considered useful or valuable to the Company.

6. Confidential Nature of the Information to be disclosed

The Parties agree that the Information to be disclosed pursuant to pt. 5 are, in turn, falling within the scope of Confidential Information, as defined under pt. 1 of this Annex, and the Director undertakes to use and keep all the Information that shall be disclosed under the conditions of pt. 5 in the same way as the Confidential Information, while also complying with the provisions of pt. 3 of this Annex on the confidentiality of Information on third parties.

7. Extent in Time of the Compliance with the Duties of Confidentiality

The duties of confidentiality incumbent upon the Director under this Annex, integral part of the Contract of Mandate, shall survive the termination of this Contract of Mandate, and shall be effective for a period of 5 years.

8. Breach of the Confidentiality Obligations

Any breach of the obligations included in this Annex by the Director may entitle the revocation and the liability for all the damages caused to the Company.

NON-COMPETITION OBLIGATIONS

1. Non-Competition

During the exercise of their term of office within the Company, except for the situations derived from the performance of the Company's activity, the Director agrees and undertakes:

- a) Not to request or to accept, directly or indirectly, the participation as an associate/shareholder holding at least 10% of the share capital in a company performing activities competing with the Company's main activity from any of the Company's customers, or from any other third party, wherever they might be located;
- b) Not to take measures to dismiss Company employees for the purpose of the Director establishing, directly or indirectly, an entity competing with the Company's main activity, attracting existing or potential customers of the Company, and initiating employment measures of Company employees, in order to disorganize the activity of the latter;
- c) Not to accept one of the capacities listed under art. 153 index 15 of Law No. 31/1990, i.e. the one of manager, director, member of the managing body or the supervisory board, auditor, internal auditor or shareholder with unlimited liability in other competing companies or with the same scope of business, except when they previously inform the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders;
- d) not to assist, as a consultant, any person whose activities are in competition with the Company's main activity.

The non-competition obligation produces effects on the entire territory of Romania, in respect of any competing third parties.

For the avoidance of any doubt, trading the shares listed with the Bucharest Stock Exchange, issued by companies competing with the Company, shall not be considered a breach of the non-competition obligation.

3. Breach of the Non-competition Obligations

Any breach of the obligations included in this Annex by the Director may entitle the revocation thereof and the liability for all the damages caused to the Company.
